

PATHWAY

a Wesleyan church

April 29, 2018

Love | Learn | Live | Lead

I was behind a semi with this advertisement: “meijer: experience the savings, experience the difference.”

I thought about Exodus and Moses. I wondered if Moses’ “ad campaign” for God would look like this:

“Jehovah: Experience the rescue, healing, and victory. Experience the difference”

With Meijer, the advertisers assume that if you actually do EXPERIENCE Meijer, that there would be no denying the saving you would encounter, and if you actually would EXPERIENCE Meijer, that you would for sure encounter a difference from any other store out there.

As a church, we can say along with Moses, that you CAN EXPERIENCE God. Then we go even further and say that if and when you actually EXPERIENCE God in your life, you will for sure encounter HIS rescue, healing, and victory. We can also say that when you EXPERIENCE God’s kind of Rescue, and God’s kind of Healing and God’s kind of Victory, that there is absolutely no denying the difference between Him and the world’s answers to those things.

Have you EXPERIENCED that? Have you experienced God’s rescue? God’s victory? God’s healing? Please ask someone about your specific needs if you have not! We want you to know the difference too.
